

SENSIENT TECHNOLOGIES CORPORATION

AMENDED AND RESTATED BY-LAWS

(as amended February 9, 2023)

1. OFFICES

1.1 Business Offices. The principal office of the corporation in the State of Wisconsin shall be located in the City of Milwaukee, County of Milwaukee. The corporation may have such other offices, either within or without the State of Wisconsin, as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

1.2 Registered Office. The registered office of the corporation required by the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law to be maintained in the State of Wisconsin may be, but need not be, identical with the principal office in the State of Wisconsin, and the address of the registered office may be changed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

2. SHAREHOLDERS

2.1 Annual Meeting. The date of the annual meeting of shareholders shall be set by the Board of Directors each year for the third Thursday after the first Friday of April, or on such other day as may be designated by the Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, for the purpose of electing directors and transacting such other business as may come before the meeting; provided, however, that any such other date shall be not later than June 1. In fixing a meeting date for any annual meeting of shareholders, the Board of Directors may consider such factors as it deems relevant within the good faith exercise of its business judgment.

2.2 Purposes of Annual Meeting. At an annual meeting of shareholders (an “Annual Meeting”), only business properly brought before the meeting as provided in this Section may be transacted. To be properly brought before an Annual Meeting, business must be (i) brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, or (ii) otherwise properly brought before the meeting by a shareholder of record where the shareholder has complied with the requirements of this Section. To bring business before an Annual Meeting, a shareholder must have given written notice thereof to the Secretary of the corporation at the corporation's principal office, that is received by the Secretary not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days nor less than ninety (90) days in advance of the third Thursday after the first Friday in the month of April next following the last Annual Meeting held; provided that if the Annual Meeting of shareholders is held earlier than the third Thursday after the first Friday in the month of April, such notice must be given on or before the later of (x) the date ninety (90) days prior to the earlier date of the Annual Meeting and (y) the date ten (10) business days after the first public disclosure, which may include any public filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission or a press release reported by Dow Jones & Company, PR Newswire, the Business Wire, the Associated Press or any similar national news service, of the earlier date of the Annual Meeting. Any such notice shall set forth the following as to each matter the shareholder proposes to bring before the Annual Meeting: (A) a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting and the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting and, if such business includes a proposal to amend the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation or By-laws of the corporation, the language of the proposed amendment; (B) the name and address, as they appear on the corporation's books, of the shareholder proposing such business and the beneficial owner or owners, if any, on whose behalf the business is proposed; (C) the class and number of shares of the corporation which are beneficially owned by such shareholder and beneficial owner or owners; (D) a representation that the shareholder is a holder of record of stock of the corporation entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to propose such business; and (E) any material interest of the shareholder and beneficial owner or owners in such business and such persons' reasons for conducting such business at the meeting. If the chairman of the shareholders meeting shall determine that business was not properly brought before the meeting and in accordance with the provisions of the By-laws, he or she shall so declare to the meeting and any such business not properly brought before the meeting shall not be transacted. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section, a shareholder shall also comply with all applicable requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder with respect to the matters set forth in this Section. The procedures set forth in this Section 2.2 and Section 3.9 shall apply to all proposals of business to be considered by the shareholders at any annual meeting other than any proposal for business brought pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act. Nothing in Section 2.2 or Section 3.9 shall be deemed to limit the corporation's obligation to include shareholder proposals in its proxy statement if such inclusion is required by Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act.

2.3 Special Meetings.

(a) A special meeting of the shareholders of the corporation (a "Special Meeting") may be called only by (i) the Chairman of the Board, (ii) the Chief Executive Officer, or (iii) the Board of Directors, and shall be called by the Chairman of the Board or the Chief Executive Officer upon the written demand, in accordance with this Section 2.3, of the holders of record of shares representing at least 10% of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the Special Meeting. Only such business shall be conducted at a Special Meeting as shall have been described in the notice of meeting sent to shareholders pursuant to Section 2.5 of these By-laws.

(b) To enable the corporation to determine the shareholders entitled to demand a Special Meeting, the Board of Directors may fix a record date to determine the shareholders entitled to make such a demand (the "Demand Record Date"). The Demand Record Date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the Demand Record Date is adopted by the Board of Directors and shall not be more than ten (10) days after the date upon which the resolution fixing the Demand Record Date is adopted by the Board of Directors. Any shareholder of record seeking to have shareholders demand a Special Meeting shall, by written notice to the Secretary of the corporation, request the Board of Directors to fix a Demand Record Date. The Board of Directors shall promptly, but in all events within ten (10) days after the date on which a valid request to fix a Demand Record Date is received, adopt a resolution fixing the Demand Record Date and shall make a public announcement of such Demand Record Date. If no Demand Record Date has been fixed by the Board of Directors within ten (10) days after the date on which such request is received by the Secretary, the Demand Record Date shall be the tenth (10th) day after the first date on which a valid written request to set a Demand Record Date is received by the Secretary. To be valid, such written request shall set forth the purpose or purposes for which the Special Meeting is to be held, shall be signed by one or more shareholders of record (or their duly authorized proxies or other representatives), shall bear the date of signature of each such shareholder (or proxy or other representative) and shall set forth all information about each such shareholder and about the beneficial owner or owners, if any, on whose behalf the request is made that would be required to be set forth in a shareholder's notice described in Sections 2.2 and 3.9 of these By-laws.

(c) For a shareholder or shareholders to demand a Special Meeting, a written demand or demands for a Special Meeting by the holders of record as of the Demand Record Date of shares representing at least ten percent (10%) of all the votes entitled to be cast on each issue proposed to be considered at the Special Meeting must be delivered to the corporation. To be valid, each written demand by a shareholder for a Special Meeting shall set forth the specific purpose or purposes for which the Special Meeting is to be held (which purpose or purposes shall be limited to the purpose or purposes set forth in the written request to set a Demand Record Date received by the corporation pursuant to paragraph (b) of this Section 2.3), shall be signed by one or more persons who as of the Demand Record Date are shareholders of record (or their duly authorized proxies or other representatives), shall bear the date of signature of each such shareholder (or proxy or other representative), shall set forth the name and address, as they appear in the corporation's books, of each shareholder signing such demand and the class or series and number of shares of the corporation which are owned of record and beneficially by each such shareholder, shall be sent to the Secretary by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, and shall be received by the Secretary within seventy (70) days after the Demand Record Date.

(d) The corporation shall not be required to call a Special Meeting upon shareholder demand unless, in addition to the documents required by paragraph (c) of this Section 2.3, the Secretary receives a written agreement signed by each Soliciting Shareholder (as defined herein), pursuant to which each Soliciting Shareholder, jointly and severally, agrees to pay the corporation's costs of holding the Special Meeting, including the costs of preparing and mailing proxy materials for the corporation's own solicitation, provided that if each of the resolutions introduced by any Soliciting Shareholder at such meeting is adopted, and each of the individuals nominated by or on behalf of any Soliciting Shareholder for election as director at such meeting is elected, then the Soliciting Shareholders shall not be required to pay such costs. For purposes of this paragraph (d) the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

- (i) "Affiliate" shall have the meaning assigned to such term in Rule 12b-2 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act").

- (ii) “Participant” shall have the meaning assigned to such term in Rule 14a-12 promulgated under the Exchange Act.
- (iii) “Person” shall mean any individual, firm, corporation, partnership, joint venture, association, trust, unincorporated organization or other entity.
- (iv) “Proxy” shall have the meaning assigned to such term in Rule 14a-1 promulgated under the Exchange Act.
- (v) “Solicitation” shall have the meaning assigned to such term in Rule 14a-1 promulgated under the Exchange Act.
- (vi) “Soliciting Shareholder” shall mean, with respect to any Special Meeting demanded by a shareholder or shareholders, any of the following Persons:
 - (A) if the number of shareholders signing the demand or demands of meeting delivered to the corporation pursuant to paragraph (c) of this Section 2.3 is ten (10) or fewer, each shareholder signing any such demand;
 - (B) if the number of shareholders signing the demand or demands of meeting delivered to the corporation pursuant to paragraph (c) of this Section 2.3 is more than ten (10), each Person who either (I) was a Participant in any Solicitation of such demand or demands or (II) at the time of the delivery to the corporation of the documents described in paragraph (c) of this Section 2.3, had engaged or intended to engage in any Solicitation of Proxies for use at such Special Meeting (other than a Solicitation of Proxies on behalf of the corporation); or
 - (C) any Affiliate of a Soliciting Shareholder, if a majority of the directors of the corporation then in office determine, reasonably and in good faith, that such Affiliate should be required to sign the written notice described in paragraph (c) of this Section 2.3 and/or the written agreement described in this paragraph (d) in order to prevent the purposes of this Section 2.3 from being evaded.

(e) Except as provided in the following sentence, any Special Meeting shall be held at such hour and day as may be designated by whichever of the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer or the Board of Directors shall have called such meeting. In the case of any Special Meeting called by the Chairman of the Board or the Chief Executive Officer upon the demand of shareholders (a “Demand Special Meeting”), such meeting shall be held at such hour and day as may be designated by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that the date of any Demand Special Meeting shall be not more than seventy (70) days after the Meeting Record Date (as defined in Section 2.6); and provided further that in the event that the directors then in office fail to designate an hour and date for a Demand Special Meeting within ten (10) days after the date that valid written demands for such meeting by the holders of record as of the Demand Record Date of shares representing at least ten percent (10%) of all the votes entitled to be cast on each issue proposed to be considered at the special meeting are delivered to the corporation (the “Delivery Date”), then such meeting shall be held at 2:00 P.M. local time on the one hundredth (100th) day after the Delivery Date, or if such one hundredth (100th) day is not a Business Day (as defined below), on the first preceding Business Day. In fixing a meeting date for any Special Meeting, the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer or the Board of Directors may consider such factors as he or it deems relevant within the good faith exercise of his or its business judgment, including, without limitation, the nature of the action proposed to be taken, the facts and circumstances surrounding any demand for such meeting, and any plan of the Board of Directors to call an Annual Meeting or a Special Meeting for the conduct of related business.

(f) The corporation may engage independent inspectors of elections to act as an agent of the corporation for the purpose of promptly performing a ministerial review of the validity of any purported written demand or demands for a Special Meeting received by the Secretary. For the purpose of permitting the inspectors to perform such review, no purported demand shall be deemed to have been delivered to the corporation until the earlier of (i) five (5) Business Days following receipt by the Secretary of such purported demand and (ii) such date as the independent inspectors certify to the corporation that the valid demands received by the Secretary represent at least ten percent (10%) of all the votes entitled to be cast on each issue proposed to be considered at the Special Meeting. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall in any way be construed to suggest or imply that the Board of Directors or any shareholder shall not be entitled to contest the validity of any demand, whether during or after such five (5) Business Day period, or to take any other action (including, without limitation, the commencement, prosecution or defense of any litigation with respect thereto).

(g) For purposes of these By-laws, “Business Day” shall mean any day other than a Saturday, a Sunday or a day on which banking institutions in the State of Wisconsin are authorized or obligated by law or executive order to close.

2.4 Place of Meeting. The Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board or the Chief Executive Officer may designate any place, either within or without the State of Wisconsin, as the place of meeting for the Annual Meeting, any Special Meeting or any postponement thereof. In lieu of, or in addition to, holding an Annual or Special Meeting at a designated place, the Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, may determine that any Annual or Special Meeting may be held by means of remote communication. If the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board or the Chief Executive Officer shall fail or neglect to make such designation, the Secretary shall designate the place of such meeting. If no designation is made, the place of meeting shall be the registered office of the corporation in the State of Wisconsin. Any adjourned meeting may be reconvened at any place or means of remote communication designated by vote of the Board of Directors or by the Chairman of the Board or the Chief Executive Officer.

2.5 Notice of Meeting. The corporation shall send written or printed notice stating the place (if any), day, hour, and the means of remote communication (if any) of any Annual Meeting or Special Meeting not less than ten (10) days nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of such meeting either personally or by mail to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting and to other shareholders as may be required by law or by the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation. In the event of any Demand Special Meeting, such notice of meeting shall be sent not more than thirty (30) days after the Delivery Date. If mailed, such notice of meeting shall be addressed to the shareholder at the shareholder's address as it appears on the corporation's record of shareholders. Unless otherwise required by law or the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, a notice of an Annual Meeting need not include a description of the purpose for which the meeting is called. In the case of any Special Meeting, (a) the notice of meeting shall describe any business that the Board of Directors shall have theretofore determined to bring before the meeting and (b) in the case of a Demand Special Meeting, the notice of meeting (i) shall describe any business set forth in the statement of purpose of the demands received by the corporation in accordance with Section 2.3 of these By-laws and (ii) shall contain all of the information required in the notice received by the corporation in accordance with Section 2.3(b) of these By-laws. A shareholder's attendance at a meeting, in person or by proxy, waives objection to the following: (A) lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting, unless the shareholder at the beginning of the meeting or promptly upon arrival objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting; and (B) consideration of a particular matter at the meeting that is not within the purpose described in the meeting notice, unless the shareholder objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

2.6 Fixing of Certain Record Dates.

(a) The Board of Directors may fix a future date not less than ten (10) days and not more than sixty (60) days prior to the date of any Annual Meeting or Special Meeting as the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, or to vote at, such meeting (the "Meeting Record Date"). In the case of any Demand Special Meeting, (i) the Meeting Record Date shall be not later than the thirtieth (30th) day after the Delivery Date and (ii) if the Board of Directors fails to fix the Meeting Record Date within thirty (30) days after the Delivery Date, then the close of business on such thirtieth (30th) day shall be the Meeting Record Date. The shareholders of record on the Meeting Record Date shall be the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting. Except as may be otherwise provided by law, a determination of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders is effective for any adjournment of such meeting unless the Board of Directors fixes a new Meeting Record Date, which it shall do if the meeting is postponed or adjourned to a date more than one hundred twenty (120) days after the date fixed for the original meeting.

(b) The Board of Directors may fix a future date as the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to receive payment of any share dividend or distribution. If no record date is so fixed by the Board of Directors, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to a distribution (other than a distribution involving a purchase, redemption or other acquisition of the corporation's shares) or a share dividend is the date on which the Board of Directors authorized the distribution or share dividend, as the case may be.

2.7 Voting Lists. After a record date for a Special Meeting or Annual Meeting has been fixed, the corporation shall prepare a list of the names of all of the shareholders entitled to notice of the meeting. The list shall be arranged by class or series of shares, if any, and show the address of and number of shares held by each shareholder. Such list shall be available for inspection by any shareholder, beginning two business days after notice of the meeting is given for which the list was prepared and continuing to the date of the meeting, at the corporation's principal office or at a place identified in the meeting notice in the city where the meeting will be held. The corporation shall make the shareholders' list available at the meeting, and any shareholder or his or her agent or attorney may inspect the list at any time during the meeting or any adjournment thereof. Refusal or failure to prepare or make available the shareholders' list shall not affect the validity of any action taken at a meeting of shareholders.

2.8 Quorum; Votes. Shares entitled to vote as a separate voting group may take action on a matter at a meeting only if a quorum of those shares exists with respect to that matter. If the corporation has only one class of stock outstanding, such class shall constitute a separate voting group for purposes of this Section 2.8. Except as otherwise provided in the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation or the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law, a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter shall constitute a quorum of the voting group for action on that matter. Once a share is represented for any purpose at a meeting, other than for the purpose of objecting to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting, it is considered present for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists for the remainder of the meeting and for any adjournment of that meeting unless a new record date is or must be set for the adjourned meeting. If a quorum exists, except in the case of the election of directors, action on a matter shall be approved if the votes cast within the voting group favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action, unless the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation or the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law requires a greater number of affirmative votes. Abstentions shall not be considered to be votes cast, but shall be considered for determining whether a quorum exists. Unless otherwise provided in the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, each director shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote in the election of directors at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

2.9 Proxies. At all meetings of shareholders, a shareholder entitled to vote may vote his or her shares in person or by proxy. A shareholder may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the shareholder by signing an appointment form, either personally or by his or her attorney-in-fact. An appointment of a proxy is effective when received by the Secretary or other officer or agent of the corporation authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment is valid for eleven months from the date of its signing unless a different period is expressly provided in the appointment form. Any shareholder directly or indirectly soliciting proxies from other shareholders must use a proxy card color other than white, which shall be reserved for the exclusive use by the Board of Directors.

2.10 Voting of Shares. Each outstanding share, regardless of class, shall be entitled to one vote upon each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, except to the extent that the voting rights of the shares of any class or classes are enlarged, limited, or denied by the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of the corporation or by the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law.

2.11 Subsidiary Shares. Shares held by another corporation, if a sufficient number of shares entitled to elect a majority of the directors of such other corporation is held directly or indirectly by the corporation, shall not be entitled to vote at any meeting, but shares held in a fiduciary capacity may be voted.

2.12 Acceptance of Instruments Showing Shareholder Action. If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver or proxy appointment corresponds to the name of a shareholder, the corporation, if acting in good faith, may accept the vote, consent, waiver or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of a shareholder. If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver or proxy appointment does not correspond to the name of a shareholder, the corporation, if acting in good faith, may accept the vote, consent, waiver or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the shareholder if any of the following apply:

(a) The shareholder is an entity and the name signed purports to be that of an officer or agent of the entity.

(b) The name purports to be that of a personal representative, administrator, executor, guardian or conservator representing the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence of fiduciary status acceptable to the corporation is presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver or proxy appointment.

(c) The name signed purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence of this status acceptable to the corporation is presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver or proxy appointment.

(d) The name signed purports to be that of a pledgee, beneficial owner, or attorney-in-fact of the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence acceptable to the corporation of the signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder is presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver or proxy appointment.

(e) Two or more persons are the shareholders as co-tenants or fiduciaries and the name signed purports to be the name of at least one of the co-owners and the person signing appears to be acting on behalf of all co-owners.

The corporation may reject a vote, consent, waiver or proxy appointment if the Secretary or other officer or agent of the corporation who is authorized to tabulate votes, acting in good faith, has reasonable basis for doubt about the validity of the signature on it or about the signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder.

2.13 Conduct of Meeting. The Chairman of the Board, and in his or her absence, any officer or director designated by the Chairman of the Board, and in his or her absence, the Chief Executive Officer, and in his or her absence, the President, and in his or her absence, a Vice President in the order provided under Section 4.7 of these By-laws, and in their absence, any person chosen by the shareholders present, shall call any Annual Meeting or Special Meeting to order and shall act as Chairman of the Meeting, and the Secretary of the corporation shall act as secretary of any meeting of the shareholders, but in the absence of the Secretary, the Chairman of the Meeting may appoint any other person to act as secretary of the meeting.

2.14 Postponement; Adjournment.

(a) Any Annual Meeting or any Special Meeting called by the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer (other than a Demand Special Meeting) or the Board of Directors may be postponed at any time or from time to time after written notice of the meeting has been delivered to shareholders as follows: (i) in the case of the Annual Meeting or a Special Meeting called by the Board of Directors, by action of the Board of Directors or a duly authorized committee thereof and (ii) in the case of a Special Meeting called by the Chairman of the Board or the Chief Executive Officer, at the request of the person calling the meeting and with the consent of the Board of Directors or a duly authorized committee thereof. Any such postponement or postponements shall be disclosed in any public filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission or by means of a press release to Dow Jones & Company or any similar service promptly following such postponement, and promptly thereafter written notice of such postponement stating the place (if any), day, hour, and the means of remote communication (if any) to which the meeting was postponed shall be delivered to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting.

(b) A meeting of shareholders may be adjourned to a different date, time, place, or means of remote communication from time to time, whether or not there is a quorum, (i) at any time, upon a resolution of shareholders if the number of votes cast in favor of such resolution exceed the number of votes cast against such resolution, or (ii) by order of the chairman of the meeting, but only where such order is delivered before any business is transacted at such meeting and such adjournment is for a period of thirty (30) days or less. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally noticed. Any such adjournment or adjournments pursuant to clause (i), if the new date, time, place (if any), and the means of remote communication (if any) of the meeting are not announced at the meeting prior to adjournment or if a new record date is or must be fixed for the meeting, or pursuant to clause (ii) shall be disclosed in any public filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission or by means of a press release to Dow Jones & Company or any similar service promptly following such adjournment, and promptly thereafter written notice of such adjournment stating the date, time, place (if any), and the means of remote communication (if any) to which the meeting was adjourned shall be delivered to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting, except that (except as may be otherwise required by law) no such disclosure in filings, press releases or notices to shareholders shall be required if an adjournment is for a period of forty-eight (48) hours or less.

2.15 Remote Communication. For the purposes of these By-laws, if authorized by the Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, and subject to such guidelines and procedures as the Board of Directors may adopt, shareholders (or their duly authorized proxies or other representatives) may participate in a meeting of shareholders by means of remote communication. If shareholders (or their duly authorized proxies or other representatives) participate in a meeting of shareholders by means of remote communication, such participating shareholders (or their duly authorized proxies or other representatives) are be deemed to be present in person and to vote at a meeting of shareholders, whether such meeting is to be held at a designated place or solely by means of remote communication, provided that the corporation (a) has implemented reasonable measures to verify that each person deemed present and permitted to vote at the meeting by means of remote communication is a shareholder (or their duly authorized proxy or other representative), (b) has implemented reasonable measures to provide shareholders (and their duly authorized proxies or other representatives) a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting and to vote on matters submitted to the shareholders, including an opportunity to read or hear the proceedings of the meeting concurrently with the proceedings, and (c) maintains a record of voting or action by any shareholder (or their duly authorized proxy or other representative) that votes or takes other action at the meeting by means of remote communication.

3. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

3.1 General Powers. All corporate powers of the corporation shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the corporation managed under the direction of, its Board of Directors.

3.2 Number, Tenure and Qualifications.

(a) The number of directors of the corporation shall be no less than nine (9) nor more than thirteen (13), the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. No more than two (2) officers or employees of the corporation or any of its subsidiaries shall simultaneously serve as directors of the corporation. All directors shall be elected at each annual meeting of shareholders, and, subject to the provisions of the By-laws of the corporation, each director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor is elected and, if necessary, qualified.

(b) Directors need not be residents of the State of Wisconsin or shareholders of the corporation. All directors who are also officers of the corporation shall automatically cease to be directors of the corporation, effective as of his or her date of termination of employment from the corporation, with the exception of any corporate officer holding, or who has held the position of Chief Executive Officer.

(c) A Chairman of the Board shall be elected by the Board of Directors from among its members to preside at all meetings of the shareholders and the Board of Directors. The Director, who need not be an employee of the corporation, elected Chairman of the Board shall serve in such position for the term of office as elected by the shareholders or the Board of Directors and until his or her successor shall have been duly elected or until his or her death or until resignation or removal in the manner hereinafter provided. The Chairman of the Board, if an employee of the corporation, may be elected Chief Executive Officer of the corporation by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board shall perform all duties incident to the office and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors from time to time.

(d) All directors of the corporation, who are not simultaneously employed as officers by the corporation, shall be properly compensated and reimbursed for their services as a director on the basis of an annual retainer, chairperson fees, meeting attendance fees, participation in the director stock plan, retirement plan and deferred compensation plan and reasonable expenses incurred as a director as established and approved annually by the Board of Directors upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Any employee of the corporation, who is elected a director of the corporation, shall not receive any compensation, expense reimbursement or participation in director benefit programs for his or her services as a director of the corporation. A corporation employee who retires from the corporation while serving as a director immediately becomes eligible for compensation, expense reimbursement and director benefit program participation as a non-employee director unless alternative arrangements are mutually approved by the Board and the retiring employee, effective as of the individual's retirement date from the corporation.

3.3 Regular Meetings. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors may be held without other notice than this By-law immediately after, and at the same place as, the Annual Meeting of shareholders, and each adjourned session thereof or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter at such time and place as may be determined by the Chairman of the Board or the Lead Director. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, provide the time and place, either within or without the State of Wisconsin, for the holding of additional regular meetings without other notice than such resolution.

3.4 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of the Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer or a majority of the number of directors fixed by Section 3.2. The person or persons authorized to call special meetings of the Board of Directors may fix any place, either within or without the State of Wisconsin, as the place for holding any special meeting of the Board of Directors called by them.

3.5 Notice of Meetings. Except as otherwise provided in the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation or the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law, notice of the date, time and place of any special meeting of the Board of Directors and of any special meeting of a committee of the Board of Directors shall be given orally or in writing to each director or committee member at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting, except that notice by mail shall be given at least seventy-two (72) hours prior to the meeting. The notice need not describe the purpose of the meeting.

3.6 Quorum; Votes. One-third (1/3) of the number of directors fixed by Section 3.2 shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors, but though less than such quorum is present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice. If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present shall be the act of the Board of Directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by law, by the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation or by these By-laws.

3.7 Removal and Resignation. A director may be removed from office by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds (2/3) of the outstanding shares entitled to vote taken at a meeting called for that purpose. A director may resign at any time by delivering his written resignation to the Secretary of the corporation or to the Chairman of the Board. A resignation is effective when the notice is received unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

3.8 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors, including a vacancy created by an increase in the number of directors, may be filled by any of the following: (i) the shareholders, (ii) the Board of Directors or (iii) if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board of Directors, the directors, by the affirmative vote of a majority of all directors remaining in office; provided, however, that if the vacant office was held by a director elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the holders of shares of that voting group may vote to fill the vacancy if it is filled by the shareholders, and only the remaining directors elected by that voting group may vote to fill the vacancy if it is filled by the directors. A director so elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor is elected, and if necessary, qualified.

3.9 Nominations.

(a) Nominations for the election of directors may be made only by the Board of Directors, by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board of Directors (or, if none, any other committee serving a similar function) or by any shareholder entitled to vote generally in elections of directors where the shareholder complies with the requirements of this Section 3.9. Except as provided in the next sentence, any shareholder of record entitled to vote generally in elections of directors may nominate one or more persons (but, in any event, no greater number of director candidates than are subject to election by shareholders at the applicable meeting of shareholders) for election as directors at a meeting of shareholders only if written notice of such shareholder's intent to make such nomination or nominations has been given to the Secretary of the corporation at the corporation's principal office and is received by the Secretary (i) with respect to an election to be held at an Annual Meeting, not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days nor less than ninety (90) days in advance of the third Thursday after the first Friday of the month of April next following the last Annual Meeting held; provided, that if the Annual Meeting is held earlier than the third Thursday after the first Friday of the month of April, such notice must be given on or before the later of (x) the date ninety (90) days prior to the earlier date of the Annual Meeting and (y) the date ten (10) business days after the first public disclosure, which may include any public filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) or a press release reported by Dow Jones & Company, PR Newswire, the Business Wire, the Associated Press or any similar national news service, of the earlier date of the Annual Meeting, and (ii) with respect to an election to be held at a Special Meeting as to which notice of such meeting states that it is to be held for the election of directors, not earlier than one hundred and twenty (120) days prior to such Special Meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of (x) the tenth (10th) business day following the date on which notice of such meeting is first given to shareholders and (y) the ninetieth (90th) day prior to such Special Meeting. To be valid, each such notice of a shareholder’s intent to nominate a director or directors at an Annual Meeting or Special Meeting also shall include the following: (A) the name and address, as they appear on the corporation’s books, of the shareholder who intends to make the nomination, the name and address of each beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination is to be made (for purposes of these by-laws, “beneficial owner” and “beneficial ownership” shall be determined in accordance with Rule 13d-3 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) and the name and residence address of the person or persons to be nominated; (B) the class and number of shares of the corporation which are beneficially owned by the shareholder, each beneficial owner and each person to be nominated, and a representation that the shareholder, each beneficial owner and each person to be nominated will notify the corporation in writing of the class and number of shares of the corporation owned of record and beneficially as of the record date for the meeting promptly following the record date; (C) a representation that the shareholder is a holder of record of stock of the corporation entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice; (D) a description of any arrangement or understanding by, between or among the shareholder, each beneficial owner, each nominee and/or any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nomination or nominations are to be made by the shareholders; (E) a description of any arrangement or understanding (including any derivative or short positions, profit interests, options, hedging transactions, and borrowed or loaned shares) entered into by or on behalf of the shareholder, any beneficial owner and/or any person to be nominated, the effect or intent of which is to mitigate loss to, manage risk or benefit of share price changes for, or increase or decrease the voting power of the shareholder, any beneficial owner and/or any person to be nominated with respect to shares of stock of the corporation, and a representation that the shareholder, any beneficial owner and/or any person to be nominated will notify the corporation in writing of any such arrangement or understanding in effect as of the record date for the meeting promptly following the record date; (F) a description of any compensatory, payment or other financial agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into by or on behalf of the shareholder, any beneficial owner and/or any person to be nominated, in connection with candidacy or service as a director of the corporation, other than agreements providing only for indemnification, reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses in connection with candidacy as a director and any pre-existing employment agreement a nominee has with his or her employer that does not provide, directly or indirectly, for compensation related to candidacy or service as a director; (G) such other information regarding such shareholder, beneficial owner, and each nominee proposed by such shareholder as would be required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors, or would be otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, including any information that would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to Regulation 14A had the nominee been nominated by the Board of Directors; (H) a completed Directors' & Officers' Questionnaire (in the form applicable to Board nominees for that Annual Meeting or Special Meeting, which shall be available from the Secretary of the corporation upon written request identifying the name and address of the requesting shareholder, each beneficial owner and each person to be nominated) signed by the nominee; (I) a truthful written affirmation by the nominee that he or she is not an employee, director or affiliate of any competitor of the corporation; (J) a truthful written affirmation by the nominee, and such supporting documentation as may be reasonably necessary to evidence, that he or she meets the corporation's criteria for the selection of new directors (as attached to the corporation's most recent proxy statement filed pursuant to Regulation 14A); (K) a written affirmation by the nominee that, if elected, the nominee will preserve and protect the corporation's confidential information and will faithfully serve the best interests of the corporation and its shareholders collectively rather than the interests of any single shareholder or group of shareholders or other persons; (L) a written affirmation by the nominee that, if elected, the nominee will comply with applicable law and the corporation's corporate governance guidelines, code of conduct, stock ownership guidelines and related policies applicable to directors of the corporation as in effect from time to time; (M) the written consent of each nominee to be named in a proxy statement relating to such meeting and accompanying proxy cards and to serve as a director of the corporation if so elected; (N) a representation by the shareholder and beneficial owner, as applicable, as to whether such person or persons acquired its or their interest in stock of the corporation in the ordinary course of business and whether such person has or persons have the intent to change or influence control of the corporation; and (O) a representation by the shareholder and beneficial owner that it intends, or is part of a group that intends, to deliver a proxy statement and form of proxy to solicit the holders of at least 67% of the voting power of shares entitled to vote in the election of directors in support of director nominees other than the corporation's nominees in accordance with Rule 14a-19 under the Exchange Act ("Rule 14a-19"). A notice as to a nomination must also be accompanied by a written representation and agreement of the nominee (in the form provided by the corporation upon written request of any shareholder of record thereof) that such nominee (I) is not and will not become a party to (1) any compensatory, payment, reimbursement, indemnification, or other financial agreement, arrangement, or understanding with any person or entity in connection with service or action as a director of the corporation that has not been disclosed to the corporation, (2) any agreement, arrangement, or understanding with any person or entity as to how the nominee would vote or act on any issue or question as a director (a "Voting Commitment") that has not been disclosed to the corporation or (3) any Voting Commitment that could limit or interfere with the nominee's ability to comply, if elected as a director of the corporation, with his or her fiduciary duties under applicable law, and (II) if elected as a director of the corporation, intends to serve the entire term until the next Annual Meeting. The corporation may require any proposed nominee to furnish, within five business days of any such request, such other information, disclosures, representations and agreements as it may reasonably require, including without limitation, any information reasonably necessary to determine the eligibility of such proposed nominee to serve as an independent director of the corporation (within the meaning of the listing rules of any exchange on which the corporation's stock is listed and any applicable SEC rules or regulations) or that could be material to a reasonable shareholder's understanding of the independence, or lack thereof, of such nominee. No person shall be eligible to serve as a director of the corporation unless nominated in accordance with the procedures and other requirements set forth in this By-law. If the corporation shall determine that a nomination was not made in accordance with the procedures and other requirements prescribed by the By-laws, the defective nomination shall be disregarded. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 3.9, a shareholder shall also comply with all applicable requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder with respect to the matters set forth in this Section.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 3.9, unless otherwise required by law, (A) no shareholder giving notice as to nominations pursuant to this Section 3.9 shall solicit proxies in support of director nominees other than the corporation's nominees unless such shareholder has complied with Rule 14a-19 in connection with the solicitation of such proxies, including the provision to the corporation of notices required hereunder in a timely manner, and (B) if any such shareholder (I) provides notice pursuant to Rule 14a-19(b) and (II) subsequently fails to comply with the requirements of Rule 14a-19(a)(2) and Rule 14a-19(a)(3), including the provision to the corporation of notices required thereunder in a timely manner, or fails to timely provide reasonable evidence sufficient to satisfy the corporation that such shareholder has met the requirements of Rule 14a-19(a)(3) in accordance with the following sentence, then the corporation shall disregard any proxies or votes solicited for such shareholder's nominees. If any shareholder providing notice as to nominations pursuant to this Section 3.9 provides notice pursuant to Rule 14a-19(b), then such shareholder shall (1) promptly notify the corporation if it subsequently fails to comply with the requirements of Rule 14a-19(a)(2) and Rule 14a-19(a)(3) and (2) deliver to the corporation, no later than seven business days prior to the applicable meeting, reasonable evidence that it has met the requirements of Rule 14a-19(a)(3).

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 3.9, unless otherwise required by law, if any shareholder (or a qualified representative thereof) providing notice as to nominations or other business that such shareholder proposes to bring before a meeting does not appear at the applicable meeting to present a nomination or proposed business, such nomination shall be disregarded and such proposed business shall not be transacted, notwithstanding that proxies in respect of such vote may have been received by the corporation.

3.10 Compensation. The Board of Directors, irrespective of any personal interest of any of its members, upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, may establish compensation of all directors for services to the corporation as directors, or may delegate such authority to an appropriate committee.

3.11 Presumption of Assent. A director of the corporation who is present and is announced as present at a meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof of which he or she is a member at which action on any corporate matter is taken assents to the action taken, unless any of the following occurs: (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting or promptly upon his or her arrival to the holding of the meeting or transacting business at the meeting; (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting; (iii) the director delivers written notice of his or her dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the corporation immediately after adjournment of the meeting; or (iv) the director dissents or abstains from action taken, minutes of the meeting are prepared that fail to show the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken and the director delivers to the corporation a written notice of that failure that complies with Section 180.0141 of the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law promptly after receiving the minutes. Such right to dissent or abstain shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

3.12 Committees of the Board of Directors.

(a) Subject to the provisions of the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law, there shall be those committees of the Board of Directors set forth in Sections 3.13-3.18 of these By-laws, and the Board of Directors may from time to time establish other committees including standing or special committees, which shall have such duties and powers as are authorized by these By-laws or by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that no committee shall do any of the following: (i) authorize distributions; (ii) approve or propose to shareholders action that the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law requires be approved by shareholders; (iii) fill vacancies on the Board of Directors or, unless the Board of Directors provides by resolution that any vacancies on a committee shall be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining committee members, on any of its committees; (iv) amend the corporation's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation; (v) adopt, amend or repeal the corporation's By-laws; (vi) approve a plan of merger not requiring shareholder approval; (vii) authorize or approve reacquisition of shares, except according to a formula or method prescribed by the Board of Directors; and (viii) authorize or approve the issuance or sale or contract for sale of shares, or determine the designation and relative rights, preferences and limitations of a class or series of shares, except that the Board of Directors may authorize a committee or the Chief Executive Officer of the corporation to do so within limits prescribed by the Board of Directors. In addition to the powers expressly enumerated in these By-laws, the Board of Directors may, by resolution, at any time desirable, adopt new powers and authority of any committee.

(b) Committee members and the chairman of each committee, including any alternates, shall be recommended by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and shall be appointed by the Board of Directors as provided in the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law. The chairmanship of the Audit Committee, Compensation and Development Committee, Finance Committee and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall be rotated periodically, so that each such Committee Chairman serves in such capacity a maximum of five consecutive years. Any member of any committee may be removed at any time with or without cause by the Board of Directors. Vacancies which occur in any committee may be filled by a resolution of the Board of Directors. If any vacancy shall occur in any committee by reason of death, resignation, disqualification, removal or otherwise, the remaining members of such committee, so long as the committee has at least two (2) members and a quorum is present, may continue to act until such vacancy is filled. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, at any time deemed desirable, discontinue any standing or special committee, subject to the requirements of the By-laws of the corporation. Members of standing committees, and their chairmen, shall be appointed yearly at the organizational meeting of the Board of Directors which is held as provided in Section 3.3 of these By-laws. Members of committees may receive such compensation for their services as the Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, may determine.

3.13 Executive Committee. There shall be an Executive Committee of the Board of Directors. The Executive Committee shall consist of the Chief Executive Officer of the corporation and not less than three (3) other directors. Subject to the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law and Section 3.12 of these By-laws, the Executive Committee shall have all of the powers of the Board of Directors in the management and conduct of the business and affairs of the corporation in the intervals between meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall report its actions to the Board of Directors at its regular meetings.

The purposes of the Committee are: (1) to assist the Board of Directors in overseeing (a) the quality and integrity of the corporation's financial statements, (b) the qualifications and independence of the corporation's independent auditor, (c) the performance of the corporation's internal audit function and independent auditor, (d) the corporation's risk assessment and risk management processes and programs in light of the corporation's risk tolerances, and (e) the corporation's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements and with its Code of Conduct; (2) to prepare the disclosure of the Committee required to be included in the corporation's annual proxy statement under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission; and (3) to perform the duties and responsibilities set forth below. The provisions of this Section 3.14 shall constitute the Charter of the Audit Committee.

Membership

1. The Committee shall have at least three (3) members. Each member of the Committee shall satisfy the independence requirements relating to directors and audit committee members (a) of the New York Stock Exchange and (b) under Section 10A(m) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") and any related rules and exemptions promulgated thereunder by the Securities and Exchange Commission.
2. The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors on the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, which shall recommend for Committee membership such directors as it believes are qualified. Members of the Committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors and for such term or terms as the Board of Directors may determine.

3. No director may serve as a member of the Committee if such director serves on the audit committee of more than two other public companies, unless the Board of Directors determines that such simultaneous service would not impair the ability of such director to effectively serve on the Committee.
4. Each member of the Committee shall be financially literate, as such qualification is interpreted by the Board of Directors in its business judgment, or must become financially literate within a reasonable period of time after appointment to the Committee. At least one member of the Committee shall qualify as a financial expert, as such term is defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission in Item 401 of Regulation S-K.

Structure and Operations

5. One of the members of the Committee will be designated by the Board of Directors to serve as the Committee chairperson. The affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Committee is necessary for the adoption of any resolution. The Committee may create one or more subcommittees and may delegate, in its discretion, all or a portion of its duties and responsibilities to such subcommittees. The Committee may delegate to one or more designated members of the Committee the authority to grant pre-approvals of audit and non-audit services pursuant to Section 10A(i)(3) of the Exchange Act and any related rules promulgated thereunder by the Securities and Exchange Commission, which pre-approvals shall be presented to the full Committee at the next scheduled meeting.
6. The Committee shall have a regularly scheduled meeting at least once every fiscal quarter, at such times and places as shall be determined by the Committee chairperson, and may have such additional meetings as the Committee chairperson or any two (2) of the Committee's members deem necessary or desirable. The Committee may request (a) any officer or employee of the corporation, (b) the corporation's outside counsel or (c) the corporation's independent auditor to attend any meeting (or portions thereof) of the Committee, or to meet with any members of or consultants to the Committee, and to provide such information as the Committee deems necessary or desirable.
7. The Committee shall meet separately, periodically, with management, with the corporation's internal auditors (or other personnel responsible for the corporation's internal audit function) and with the independent auditor.

9. The Committee shall undertake and review with the Board of Directors an annual performance evaluation of the Committee, which shall compare the performance of the Committee with the requirements of this Charter and set forth the goals and objectives of the Committee for the upcoming year. The performance evaluation by the Committee shall be conducted in such manner as the Committee deems appropriate. The report to the Board of Directors may take the form of an oral report by the chairperson of the Committee or any other member of the Committee designated by the Committee to make this report.
10. The Committee shall review and reassess the adequacy of this charter at least annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board of Directors for approval.

The Corporation's Relationship With the Independent Auditor

11. The Committee shall have the sole and direct responsibility and authority for the appointment, compensation, retention, and oversight of the work of each independent auditor engaged by the corporation for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or related work or performing other audit, review or attest services for the corporation, and each such independent auditor shall report directly to the Committee. 15. The Committee shall, at least annually, discuss with the independent auditor, out of the presence of management if deemed appropriate: (i) the matters required by Public Company Accounting Oversight Board standards; (ii) the audit process, including, without limitation, any problems or difficulties encountered in the course of the performance of the audit, including any restrictions on the independent auditor's activities or access to requested information imposed by management, and management's response thereto, and any significant disagreements with management; and (iii) the corporation's internal controls and the responsibilities, budget and staffing of the corporation's internal audit function, including any "management" or "internal control" letter issued or proposed to be issued by such auditor to the corporation.

management has taken to monitor and control such exposures in light of the corporation's risk tolerances. The Committee shall have primary responsibility for overseeing the executives' risk assessments and implementation of appropriate risk management policies and guidelines generally, including those related to financial reporting and regulatory compliance. The Committee shall undertake these reviews and discussions in a general manner, but it is not required to undertake more specific actions to the extent they are performed by the Compensation and Development Committee (which has primary oversight responsibility to insure that compensation programs and practices do not encourage unreasonable or excessive risk-taking and that any risks are subject to appropriate controls) or by the Finance Committee (which has primary oversight responsibility with respect to types and amounts of insurance and with respect to foreign currency management).

22. 30. The Committee shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties and responsibilities as are incidental to the purposes, duties and responsibilities specified herein and as may from time to time be delegated to the Committee by the Board of Directors.

Authority and Resources

The Committee may, without further approval by the Board of Directors, obtain such advice and assistance, including, without limitation, the performance of special audits, reviews and other procedures, from outside accounting, legal or other advisors as the Committee determines to be necessary or advisable in connection with the discharge of its duties and responsibilities hereunder. Any accounting, legal or other advisor retained by the Committee may, but need not, be in the case of an outside accountant, the same accounting firm employed by the corporation for the purpose of rendering or issuing an audit report on the corporation's annual financial statements, or in the case of an outside legal or other advisor, otherwise engaged by the corporation for any other purpose.

The corporation shall pay to the independent auditor employed by the corporation for the purpose of rendering or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services and to any outside accounting, legal or other advisor retained by the Committee pursuant to the preceding paragraph such compensation, including, without limitation, usual and customary expenses and charges, as shall be determined by the Committee. In addition, the corporation shall pay ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.

3.15 Compensation and Development Committee. There shall be a Compensation and Development Committee of the Board of Directors. The purposes of the Committee are to: (1) assist the Board of Directors in the discharge of its responsibilities relating to compensation of officers appointed by the Board of Directors of the corporation and relating to risk-taking incentives arising from the compensation practices and programs of the corporation and its subsidiaries for executives and other employees; (2) prepare any report of the Committee required by the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission to be included in the corporation's annual proxy statement; and (3) perform the duties and responsibilities set forth below. The provisions of this Section 3.15 shall constitute the Charter of the Compensation and Development Committee.

Membership

(a) The Committee shall be composed of at least three (3) members, each of whom shall be appointed by the Board of Directors on the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, which shall recommend for Committee membership such directors as it believes are qualified. Members of the Committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors and for such term or terms as the Board of Directors may determine.

(b) Each member of the Committee shall have been determined by the Board of Directors to meet the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange following consideration of all factors specifically relevant to determining whether a director has a relationship to the corporation which is material to the director's ability to be independent from management in connection with the duties applicable to Committee members (including but not limited to the source of any consulting, advisory or other compensatory fees paid by the corporation to the director and whether the director is affiliated with the corporation, a corporation subsidiary, an affiliate of a corporation subsidiary, or an organization that has such an affiliation, including commercial, charitable and familial relationships, among others). Each member of the Committee shall be a “nonemployee director” (within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 of the Securities and Exchange Act).

The affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Committee is necessary for the adoption of any resolution. The Committee may create one or more subcommittees and may delegate, in its discretion, all or a portion of its duties and responsibilities to such subcommittees, provided that such subcommittees are composed entirely of independent directors and have a committee charter.

(d) The Committee shall have at least two regularly scheduled meetings per year, at such times and places determined by the Committee chairperson, and may have such additional meetings as the Committee chairperson or any two (2) of the Committee’s members deem necessary or desirable. The Committee may invite such members of management to its meetings as it may deem desirable or appropriate, consistent with the maintenance of the confidentiality of compensation discussions.

Duties and Responsibilities

The Committee’s duties and responsibilities shall include all of the responsibilities of a qualified compensation committee under New York Stock Exchange rules, including but not limited to the following items, and such other matters as may from time to time be delegated to the Committee by the Board of Directors:

(f) The Committee shall have primary oversight responsibility to insure that compensation programs and practices do not encourage unreasonable or excessive risk taking and that any risks are subject to appropriate controls. The Committee shall, at least annually, review and discuss with management the policies and practices of the corporation and its subsidiaries for compensating their employees, including non-executive officers and employees, as those policies and practices relate to risk management practices and/or risk-taking incentives.

(h) The Committee shall, at least annually, review and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to compensation of the Chief Executive Officer, evaluate the performance of the Chief Executive Officer in light of those goals and objectives, report the results of such evaluation to the Board of Directors and determine and approve the Chief Executive Officer's compensation level based on this evaluation.

(i) The Committee shall review and approve all awards under the corporation's equity-based plans.

(j) The Committee shall review and make recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect to incentive compensation plans and equity-based plans (including the relationships of these plans to risk management practices and/or risk-taking incentives), oversee the administration of these plans and discharge any responsibilities imposed on the Committee by any of these plans.

(k) The Committee shall consider and make recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding the selection, retention and compensation of all elected officers of the corporation (as defined in Section 4.1) and shall annually recommend to the Board of Directors the election or appointment of such officers of the corporation at the time of the Annual Meeting of shareholders.

- (l) The Committee shall approve all executive employment contracts.

Authority and Resources

The Committee shall have the sole authority, without further approval by the Board of Directors, to select, retain and terminate a compensation consultant to assist in the evaluation of compensation of the Chief Executive Officer or other executives and employees of the corporation and its subsidiaries and to approve any compensation payable by the corporation to such consultant, including the fees, terms and other conditions for the performance of such services. In addition, the Committee shall have authority, without further approval by the Board of Directors, to obtain such advice and assistance from outside accounting, legal or other advisors as the Committee determines to be necessary or advisable in connection with the discharge of its duties and responsibilities hereunder. The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any compensation consultant, independent legal counsel or other advisor retained by the Committee. Any accounting, legal or other advisor retained by the Committee following the independence review described below may, but need not, be in the case of an outside accountant, the same accounting firm employed by the corporation for the purpose of rendering or issuing an audit report on the corporation's annual financial statements, or in the case of outside counsel or other advisors, otherwise engaged by the corporation for any other purpose.

The corporation shall pay to any compensation consultant or outside accounting, legal or other advisor retained by the Committee pursuant to the preceding paragraph such compensation, including, without limitation, usual and customary expenses and charges, as shall be determined by the Committee.

The Committee may select a compensation consultant, legal counsel or other advisor to the Committee only after taking into consideration all factors relevant to that person's independence from management, including the following:

- (A) The provision of other services to the corporation or its affiliates by the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other advisor;
- (B) The amount of fees received from the corporation or its affiliates by the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other advisor, as a percentage of the total revenue of the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other advisor;
- (C) The policies and procedures of the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other advisor that are designed to prevent conflicts of interest;
- (D) Any business or personal relationship of the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other advisor with a member of the Committee;
- (E) Any corporation stock owned by the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other advisor; and
- (F) Any business or personal relationship of the compensation consultant, legal counsel, other advisor or the person employing the advisor with an executive officer of the corporation.

The foregoing does not require the Committee to implement or act consistently with the advice or recommendations of any compensation consultant, independent legal counsel or other advisor it retains, or affect its ability or obligation to exercise its own judgment in fulfillment of its duties. The foregoing also does not require that the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other compensation advisor be independent; only that the Committee consider the enumerated independence factors before selecting or receiving advice from a compensation advisor. The independence assessment is not required with respect to in-house counsel or any compensation consultant, legal counsel or other advisor whose role is limited as provided in the applicable SEC rules and the NYSE Listed Company Manual.

The Committee shall take such other action in connection with the corporation's swap activities as it shall deem necessary and appropriate in the exercise of its general oversight responsibilities.

8.1 Limited Liability of Directors to Corporation and Shareholders. A director is not liable to the corporation, its shareholders, or any person asserting rights on behalf of the corporation or its shareholders, for damages, settlements, fees, fines, penalties or other monetary liabilities arising from a breach of, or failure to perform, any duty resulting solely from his or her status as a director, unless the person asserting liability proves that the breach or failure to perform constitutes any of the following:

(a) a willful failure to deal fairly with the corporation or its shareholders in connection with a matter in which the director has a material conflict of interest;

(b) a violation of criminal law, unless the director had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was lawful, or no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful;

(c) a transaction from which the director derived an improper personal profit;
or

(d) willful misconduct.

8.2 Indemnification.

(a) A corporation shall indemnify a director or officer, to the extent he or she has been successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of a proceeding, for all reasonable expenses incurred in the proceeding if the director or officer was a party because he or she is a director or officer of the corporation.

(b) In cases not included under the foregoing paragraph, a corporation shall indemnify a director or officer against liability incurred by the director or officer in a proceeding to which the director or officer was a party because he or she is a director or officer of the corporation, unless liability was incurred because the director or officer breached or failed to perform a duty he or she owes to the corporation and the breach or failure to perform constitutes any of the following:

- (i) a willful failure to deal fairly with the corporation or its shareholders in connection with a matter in which the director or officer has a material conflict of interest;
- (ii) a violation of criminal law, unless the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was lawful or no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful;
- (iii) a transaction from which the director or officer derived an improper personal profit; or
- (iv) willful misconduct.

(c) Determination of whether indemnification is required under this subsection shall be made under section 180.0855 of the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law.

(d) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction, or upon a plea of no contest or an equivalent plea, does not, by itself, create a presumption that indemnification of the director or officer is not required under this subsection.

(e) A director or officer who seeks indemnification under this section shall make a written request to the corporation.

(f) Indemnification under this section is not required if the director or officer has previously received indemnification or allowance of expenses from any person, including the corporation, in connection with the same proceeding.

8.3 Advance of Expenses. In addition to the right of indemnification conferred in Section 8.2, expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an officer or director in defending any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding. A director or officer who seeks advancement of expenses under this section shall make a written request to the corporation, including (a) affirmation of such officer's or director's good faith belief that he or she has not breached or failed to perform his or her duties to the corporation, and (b) an undertaking by or on behalf of such officer or director to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation under Section 8.2 of this Article. The board of directors considers the advancement of legal expenses under this section to be necessary to the retention of officers and directors and any payments pursuant to this section shall not be deemed an "extraordinary payment" to any officer or director.

8.4 Reliance by Directors and Officers. Unless a director or officer has knowledge that makes reliance unwarranted, a director or officer, in discharging his or her duties to the corporation, may rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, any of which may be written or oral, formal or informal, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by any of the following:

(a) an officer or employee of the corporation whom the director or officer believes in good faith to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

(b) legal counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters the director or officer believes in good faith are within the person's professional or expert competence; or

(c) in the case of reliance by a director, a committee of the Board of Directors of which the director is not a member if the director believes in good faith that the committee merits confidence.

8.5 Consideration of Interests in Addition to Shareholders' Interests. In discharging his or her duties to the corporation and in determining what he or she believes to be in the best interests of the corporation, a director or officer may, in addition to considering the effects of any action on shareholders, consider any of the following:

(a) the effects of the action on employees, suppliers and customers of the corporation;

(b) the effects of the action on communities in which the corporation operates;

(c) any other factors the director or officer considers pertinent.

8.6 Insurance. The corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual who is an employee, agent, director or officer of the corporation against liability asserted against or incurred by the individual in his or her capacity as an employee, agent, director or officer or arising from his or her status as an employee, agent, director or officer, regardless of whether the corporation is required or authorized to indemnify or allow expenses to the individual against the same liability under sections 180.0851, 180.0853, 180.0856 and 180.0858 of the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law.

8.7 General.

(a) Except as limited by law, the indemnification and allowance of expenses provided by Sections 8.1 through 8.6 of this Article do not preclude any additional right to indemnification or allowance of expenses that a director, officer or employee may have under any written agreement between such person and the corporation, resolution of the Board of Directors or resolution adopted by the corporation’s shareholders.

(b) For purposes of this article, the definitions contained in section 180.0850 of the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law are incorporated herein by this reference. The term “employee” shall mean a natural person who is or was an employee of the corporation or who, while an employee of the corporation, is or was serving at the corporation’s request as a director, officer, partner, committee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, and, unless the context requires otherwise, the estate or personal representative of the employee.

(c) The corporation, by its Board of Directors, may indemnify under Section 8.2, or with any limitations, any employee or former employee of the corporation with respect to any action taken or not taken in his or her capacity as or while an employee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the corporation shall indemnify an employee who is not a director or officer of the corporation, to the extent that he or she has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of a proceeding, for all expenses incurred in the proceeding if the employee was a party because he or she was an employee of the corporation.

9. GENERAL

9.1 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall end on December 31 of each year, the first full calendar fiscal year being the year ending December 31, 2000.

9.2 Seal. The Board of Directors shall provide a corporate seal which shall be circular in form and shall have inscribed thereon the name of the corporation and the words “Corporate Seal, Wisconsin”.

9.3 Notices. Except as otherwise required by law or these By-laws, any notice required to be given by these By-laws may be given orally or in writing and notice may be communicated in person, by mail or private carrier, by telephone, telegraph, teletype, facsimile or other form of wire or wireless communication, and, if these forms of personal notice are impracticable, notice may be communicated by a newspaper of general circulation in the area where published, or by radio, television or other form of public broadcast communication. Oral notice is effective when communicated. Written notice is effective as follows: (a) if delivered in person, when received; (b) if given by mail, when deposited, postage prepaid, in the United States mail addressed to the director at his or her business or home address (or such other address as the director may have designated in writing filed with the Secretary); (c) if given by private carrier, when delivered to the carrier; (d) if given by telegraph, when delivered to the telegraph company; and (e) if given by facsimile, e-mail or other form of wireless communication, at the time transmitted to a facsimile number or e-mail address at any address designated in (b) above.

9.4 No Nominee Procedures. The corporation has not established, and nothing contained in these By-laws shall be deemed to establish, any procedure by which a beneficial owner of the corporation's shares that are registered in the name of a nominee is recognized by the corporation as the shareholder under Section 180.0723 of the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law.

10. AMENDMENTS

10.1 Power to Amend and Repeal. Except as may be limited pursuant to Section 10.2, these By-laws may be amended or repealed, and new By-laws may be adopted, either by the shareholders at any meeting, or by vote of a majority of the shares present or represented thereat, or by the Board of Directors by a vote of a majority of the Board of Directors; except that Sections 2.3, 2.8, 3.2, 3.7, 3.8, 10.1, and 10.2 of the By-laws may be amended only by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds (2/3) of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon or by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors. Except as may be limited pursuant to Section 10.2, the Board of Directors shall have the power to amend or repeal any By-law adopted by the shareholders, and any By-law adopted by the Board of Directors shall be subject to amendment or repeal by the shareholders as well as by the directors.

10.2 Restrictions on Amendment and Repeal.

(a) The Board of Directors shall have no power to amend or repeal any By-law or amendment adopted by the shareholders which contains a specific provision to the effect that such By-law or amendment shall not be subject to amendment or repeal by the Board of Directors.

(b) The Board of Directors shall have no power to amend or repeal any By-law adopted or amended by the shareholders that fixes a greater or lower quorum requirement or a greater voting requirement for the Board of Directors than otherwise is provided in the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law unless the By-law expressly provides that it may be amended or repealed by a specified vote of the Board of Directors. Action by the Board of Directors to adopt or amend a By-law that changes the quorum or voting requirement for the Board of Directors must meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote required to take action under the quorum and voting requirement then in effect, unless a different voting requirement is specified as provided by the preceding sentence. A By-law that fixes a greater or lower quorum requirement or a greater voting requirement for shareholders or voting groups of shareholders than otherwise is provided in the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law may not be adopted, amended or repealed by the Board of Directors.

(c) No amendment or repeal of these By-laws by the shareholders at any meeting shall be effective unless the notice of such meeting shall have set forth the general nature of the proposed amendment or repeal.
